Regular License:

- Licenses are issued to one individual person, not organization.
- Licenses allow for software to be installed on one primary computer (e.g., desktop).
  - 2nd License for second computer (e.g., laptop) belonging to the same user may be purchased for an additional $50 (excluding A.T.-BLAST).
- License will expire after one year after activation of the software and will be available for annual renewal, excluding A.T.-BLAST.

Educational/Training License:

- Educational/Training licenses are issued to one organization for use by students.
- Dates for training must be submitted when requesting an educational license.
- License will expire after duration of the training/class
- Use of software for anything other than educational/training purposes is strictly prohibited.
- Educational/Training License may be re-activated for the same fee and will remain active for length of new training/class.

A.T.-BLAST is a one-time only purchase for two installs. Future re-installations will require a new license file. A new license file can be obtained for a $50 fee.

Annual license includes installation support and program maintenance only.

Annual support includes program operation support only, not design and analysis guidance.
